1. Recap session

The Wii has now arrived. The exec discussed how the Wii can best be secured, along with the creation of guidelines for using the Wii. These will be summarised in What's On and on a poster in the Old JCR.

Yoga is going well, but few boys are attending.

Lucy reported that the elections to the General Board and University Council went well, with turnout higher than expected.

The University Challenge team has been changed: James Eastwood has dropped out, with Andy Hastings replacing him instead. Simran Singh is the new reserve.

A new condom machine has been installed in the girl's toilets near the bar.

2. College Parents

The deadline for applications was clarified (last day of Week 3).

3. Subject Parents

Applications are now open; these will be done via a sign-up sheet in the post room.

4. Freshers' Reps

Applications must be emailed to SY by Friday, along with any ideas/ suggestions about Freshers' Week.

5. EU Elections

These are being held on 4 June - the first day of Week 7. Applications for postal votes must be received by Tues 19.

Luke will make some posters to advertise the elections with the hope of motivating people to vote.

Joe raised the issue of voting both here in Cambridge and at home.

He will research this further.

The meeting closed at 17:40.

Next meeting: 17 May 2009 at 5pm

Distribution: Executive Members, college archives, ECSU website
