The meeting began with members enjoying cake and smoothie in celebration of the end of Lent Term.

1. Recap session

Zing reported that Emma now has a University Challenge team. The members are Alex Gutenplan, Josh Scott, Andy Hastings, Jenny Harris and James Eastwood.

Laura reported that the welfare team had distributed welfare cards to all members of the college. There are many spares of these cards, which are in the Porters' Lodge and the ECSU Shop.

Dana informed the meeting that a Women's Council meeting is coming up, but she can't attend. Another female member of the exec will attend as a proxy.

2. Badminton on the Paddock

Pete raised the idea of having badminton, as well as tennis, on the paddock in Easter Term. This would involve buying a badminton set using ECSU funds.

Pete will research this further; the Senior Tutor will also be informed.

3. Ketchup in Hall

Zoë explained that she was told to pay for ketchup in hall last week, despite the policy being that ketchup sachets are free due to the dispenser being broken.

Kate will email the catering department to ensure everyone is clear on the new policy.

4. ECSU Stash

Zing has been researching ECSU stash. The cost is dependent on how many items (which includes hoodies, tshirts, polo shirts and underwear) are ordered. The design will be kept the same as last year: the ECSU lion and/or '2009' on the front, and everyone's position and name on the back.

Zing will email everyone to see exactly how many items everyone wants to order. The stash should be ready by the start of next term.

The Peking Duck was read out and discussed. The meeting then closed at 17:31.

Next meeting: 26 April at 5pm

Distribution: Executive Members, college archives, ECSU website
